

browse to the "Quality" tab of the driver and choose color output. Jobs sent to the copier without authenticating properly will only output in Black and White, even if the output settings are set to color on the "Quality" tab.

Be sure to change your settings back if you wish to print in Black and White.